

At H&C it's not just about delivering quality fasteners

METALMATE

It's about delivering quality, consistently

At Harrison & Clough, we make sure every HT bolt/set, every socket screw and every fastener in the METALMATE® range reaches and maintains the same high quality standard every time.

We ensure consistent quality by tracking the materials used at each stage of the manufacturing and packing process, from start to finish - from Steel billets in the Far East, to our stocked product in the UK.

- ✓ Available from stock next day, with no MOQ
